

Cool News.

Having heard rumors to the effect that the closing down of the water jacket furnaces of the United Verde Copper mine was liable to be permanent, a JOURNAL-MINER representative called today on Governor Trille for information on the subject. He informed us that such was not the fact. That owing to the grading and foundation work required in front of the ore doors of the furnace, it was impossible to run the water jacket furnaces with economy while the excavating for and placing of the foundations of his roasting furnaces or kilns was in progress. He stated that he was accumulating coke as rapidly as the teams put on the road could do the work. These teams are receiving $10 per ton for coke to the furnaces, and $10 per ton for return freight to Verde station. The Governor furnishes water free everywhere needed by the teams, and all other expenses such as feeding animals, repairs of wagons, etc., are borne by the freighters. As it requires in the extreme only five days to make the round trip, and 1,000 pounds each per animal can be drawn, the price is a profitable one to freighters, and he has no doubt whatever of being able to procure all animals and wagons required to transport coke to and bring bullion from the furnaces. The mining work, he says, is being continued, and he is accumulating a large quantity of oxide and carbonate carrying silver, and expects to put the furnaces in blast again September 15th, when he expects to make a splendid run of copper carrying silver largely. His product for the month of August, starting on the 1st, for 25 days, was 224 tons of matte and bullion, all carrying some silver and gold. Of this product only 60 tons have reached the railroad, and has been shipped as follows: By Mr. Cockburn, 1 car load, to Denver. One car load, to E. M. Jerome, of the United Verde, for test of quality and determination in New York, by buyers, for Swansea and other places. One car load to E. M. Jerome, to go to the Oxford Co., Constable Hook, N. J., who handled the million dollars of product of the United Verde Company formerly produced, and who have erected a plant costing $500,000 to separate copper and silver, and which is now almost idle for want of that class of product. The next car load will be consigned to Ball & Black, Belleville, Ill., opposite St. Louis, who have furnished very high rates for such product as he is making. In regard to the erection of coke bins, platform, etc., which he said were promised him by the board of directors of the railroad, and also as to furnishing him with 1,500 gallons of water per day, he said: "The platform and scales have been erected at my own expense, but I shall charge the company with the cost. The first water car was taken in yesterday, and I presume that everything necessary for a complete supply will now be furnished." No action has been taken, he said, in reference to the coke bins, but he said he had telegraphed, September 1st, to Neil MacDonald, 42 Wall St., New York, who, he claims, has made all advances for building the railroad, and who now holds possession of a large portion of the first mortgage bond securities, and is paying all interest coupons which have matured on them, and from whom W. C. Beahm & Co. has just received the interest on all bonds held by them, a few days since, that the facilities, as promised, had not been furnished, and requesting him to say, if possible, to have the bins erected, and he said he had every reason to believe that the material would be ordered and the bins constructed.

Governor Trille will leave for New York on Thursday, September 8th, with which time sufficient product will be shipped and arrive in New York for him to determine which market he will hereafter take shipment.

Mr. F. N. Holbrook, superintendent of the enterprise for him; H. C. Church, in charge of the mine, as well as the governor himself, by measurements of ore bodies and otherwise, estimate that there is now open in the Eureka and Hampton mines alone sufficient ore to run all the furnaces, when the new ones are completed, for at least three years, and becomes a matter of first importance to ascertain where the product can be marketed to the greatest advantage. He informed us, also, that it becomes necessary, in determining this fact before returning to Prescott, he will visit Swansea, Wales, and London, England, where the best market in the world exists.

As to the value of the product so far produced, he said that it will yield sufficient money to pay all expenses incurred in repairing the road, in which he expects to be reimbursed from the county at the meeting of the board of supervisors in October; for replacing the steam hoist, made necessary by the cave of the Hampton; for reopening the drifts around the cave ground for several hundred feet; for repairing and placing the furnaces in good condition again; for fixing up the cave of ground in the Eureka and replacing the broken timbers, fixing up the main tunnel, tracks, replenishing supplies, reorganizing the boarding house, assay office and office; for adding to the coke supplies, moving scales and platform from Ash Fork; erecting the same at Verde Station, and establishing conveniences there; for the purchase of wagons and coke beds to supply freighters who did not have any, and to have a surplus over all these expenses as soon as the product could be marketed.

Indemnity Lands.

Prescott, Ariz., August 31.
EDITOR JOURNAL-MINER.—From the number of letters of inquiry received at this office, it would seem that a great many people think that the recent order of the Secretary of the Interior throws all of the lands of the Atlantic & Pacific railroad company open to settlement.

I would state for the general information of the public and for answering inquiries, that only the indemnity lands, or those lands lying between the forty and fifty mile limit, are affected by this order. The actual grant comprising the lands within the forty mile limit on each side of the road remains as before.

The Sheriff's Return.

Sheriff Mulvenon and Deputies Hickey and Tackett returned on Saturday evening, from their trip to Tonto Basin. They returned empty handed, having failed to apprehend any of the parties for whom they had warrants. On their arrival at Prescott Valley they found that the Tewksbury party, some sixteen in number, well armed, had gone to the hills to escape service of the warrants. They had been seen a few days before the arrival of the sheriff's party, by J. D. Houch, of Apache, whom they told that, while they did not propose to resist arrest, they would try and avoid the sheriff's party. Being familiar with every foot of country there, and there being no roads, the only route of travel lay over trails, through the mountains and valleys, this was an easy matter to do. They told Mr. Houch, however, that if the Graham party was arrested and taken from the valley, they would come in and give themselves up. While promising to him to being law abiding citizens, they said they did not propose to leave their stock to be killed and their homes at the mercy of the other party.

After the killing on the 9th of August, at Newton's ranch, the bodies of John Payne and E. Higgins lay for three days in the sun and rain, when citizens in the vicinity arrived and buried them within a few feet of the house, after which the house was fired and, together with its contents, valued at $1,500, burned to the ground.

J. D. Tewksbury, father of the boys, who went to Phoenix several days before the shooting occurred, but for whom a warrant was also issued, arrived in Prescott last evening, having come here voluntarily and at his own expense, to surrender to the authorities.

In conversation with a JOURNAL-MINER representative, Mr. Tewksbury said that the climate was becoming very unhealthy there, and he left on the first of August, nine days before the killing. He had sent a man from Phoenix to Pleasant Valley, with supplies for his wife, but he had failed to put in an appearance when the sheriff's posse left, although due there on the 21st, and it is feared he has fallen a victim to the fever.

Affairs in the valley continue very unsettled, as the Tewksburys have sixteen determined and well armed men, while the Graham party have fourteen. Among the latter is Andy Cooper, alias Blower, whose father is missing and whose brother was killed at the Newton ranch. Every man met in the valley was armed with a Winchester rifle and one or two six shooters, with two full belts of cartridges around his waist.

On the evening before the sheriff's party left, an emissary was sent from the Tewksburys to Sheriff Mulvenon, and a conference was had between him and the sheriff, but the nature of it is not made public; suffice it to say that the party for whom they were looking intended to keep out of their way until such time as they can leave the valley in safety to their property, when they are willing to stand trial. Some of the parties with the Tewksburys have thousands of dollars worth of property; so that there is no probability of their leaving the country.

News of further trouble is liable to be received at any time.

For the Ladies.

Twelve hundred Boston women patronize the free baths of their city daily. A niece of ex-Senator Conkling is reported to be the reigning beauty of Saratoga this season. Five Cincinnati belles formed a pool of $1,000, bought tobacco on margins and cleared $16,000.

Don't Laugh at Nervous People.

Their sufferings are very real, although you, with your vigorous physique and strong nerves, can scarcely believe it. Rather suggest the use of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, in removing every trace of dyspepsia, and regulating the liver and bowels, strikes at and exterminates the most prolific cause of chronic nervous trouble. The nerve-shattering disease, fever and ague, is among the formidable ailments, to the removal of which this genial remedy is specially adapted. Nervous prostration, resulting from prolonged mental or physical effort, is also a state of the system where the intervention of this tonic is very desirable, more particularly as its use is to quiet and relax the tension of overworked nerves. The Bitters are invaluable in rheumatism, neuralgia and kidney troubles. Employ no substitute for it.
